

How do marine animals protect themselves?

Possibilities include: camouflage, stinging cells, hard shells, a barb, burying themselves in the sand, swimming as a school in the shape of a bigger fish, decorating themselves.

Design a clever marine creature which has many amazing ways of protecting itself, label its features and draw its habitat.

