

Explore the Marine Discovery Centre to find the answers to these questions

1. How long does it take for a plastic bottle to break down? How can we prevent this from entering our marine environment?
2. What is the most commonly found marine debris item on Henley Beach? Why do you think this is?
3. What do the fishes in the marine tanks have in common? Name some similar features.
4. List 3 responsible fishing practices. Why do you think there are certain rules about the size and number of fish that you catch?
5. What is the function of a seahorse's tail? Why might this be important?
6. List an example of a marine food chain with four links.
7. How long does a Port Jackson Shark live? How long does a seahorse live?