

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

Microbeads - Comprehension (level 2)

1. Where do microbeads from shampoo bubbles end up?

---

---

2. Microbeads can be found in shampoo. Name some other bathroom products that might contain microbeads.

---

---

3. Circle the correct answer. Microbeads are 'super small pieces of plastic' that are around:

- a) one centimetre in size
- b) one millimetre in size
- c) one metre in size

4. List some of the words that were used to describe microbeads in the video:

---

---

5. What are the problems of microbeads that were mentioned in the video?

---

---

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

---

6. Following are some of the harmful microbead ingredients to look for on the label of products. Name two more.

- Polyethylene (PE)
- Polypropylene (PP)
- Polyethylene terephthalate (PET)

_____

_____

7. Circle the correct answer. If your bathroom products contain microbeads, you should:

- a. just throw it in the bin
- b. keep buying the same product
- c. ship them back to the manufacturer, explaining why you don't want to use their product.