

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

True or False? Solutions

Here are some statements from Porci's Ocean Patrol Episode 9. Are they true or false? Circle your answer.

1. Reefs are only found around Australia and nowhere else in the world.

FALSE – Reefs are found all along the world's coastlines.

2. Oysters and sponges are other animals that can form reefs.

TRUE

3. Coral polyps prefer cold temperate waters to live in.

FALSE – Coral polyps prefer the warm, tropical waters.

4. A coral is a type of plant.

FALSE – Coral polyps are tiny animals.

5. Shellfish restoration reefs are used to help support a healthier marine environment.

TRUE

6. A reef can be both naturally made and artificially made by humans.

TRUE

7. There is only 1 type of zooplankton in the ocean.

FALSE – There are thousands of different kinds of zooplankton.

8. Lots of other animals like filter feeders and whales like to eat zooplankton.

TRUE

9. Zooplankton can swim very fast with their fins.

FALSE – Zooplankton can only drift through the ocean using the currents.

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

10. Zooplankton eat a food called Phytoplankton.

TRUE

11. The traditional Kurna name for boomerang is a wadna.

TRUE

12. There are many different types of boomerangs, each with their own function.

TRUE

13. Boomerangs are shaped to be round like a ball, with no flat areas at all.

FALSE – Boomerangs have rounded edges with wide, flat surface area.

14. The boomerang inspired the design of the modern aeroplane wings.

TRUE