

Food Web Crossword

Down:

1. Animals such as baleen whales and sponges use different body parts like sieves to strain food from the water - these are called _____ feeders. (6)
2. Marine creatures that feed on the sea floor are called _____-feeders. (6)
4. Describes an animal that eats both plants and animals for energy. (8)
6. Describes an animal that eats only plants for energy. (9)
8. A type of plant that grows under the ocean. (8)
9. A hunter in the ocean. (5)
11. Many food chains that are linked together are called a food _____. (3)
13. A living thing that is able to produce its own food using the light energy from the sun. (5)

Across:

3. Describes an animal that eats other animals for energy. (9)
5. Where our food goes after we eat it. (7)
7. Many animals do not eat the pufferfish, because it is _____. (9)
10. Small, floating plants and animals which are the base of many marine food chains. (8)
12. Describes an animal that relies on the remains of already dead animals for energy. (9)
13. Describes an animal that is hunted and eaten by a predator. (4)
14. Many animals use these to bite, chew and tear up food. (5)